Colorado Women's Chamber Feature Rocky Mountain College of Art + Design
Students in New Art Gallery Exhibit

DENVER – December 23, 2009 – The Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce will be opening a new art gallery exhibit on January 6, 2010 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The art gallery will be hosted along with a Business After Hours reception at the Colorado Women's Chamber offices, 1624 Market St. suite 340, Denver, Colo.

The cost for the event is $10 for CWCC members, $15 for non-members and walk-ins. Attendees can register online at www.cwcc.org. Participants will enjoy a wine tasting provided by VINO 100 and food provided by Sam's Club.

The art gallery exhibit will feature "Portraits of & by Women" by the students at the Rocky Mountain College of Art + Design. The CWCC will also have their new 2010 membership directory hot of the press to pass out at the event.

The Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce office is available to member organizations to display and sell visual art. Exhibits are available for viewing Monday-Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and during scheduled public events at the Chamber office. The area dedicated to art exhibits within the Chamber office is referred to as the Gallery. All of the images in the gallery are for sale and members, as well as the general public, are welcome to stop by the Chamber to purchase the artwork.

About Rocky Mountain College of Art + Design:

The Rocky Mountain College of Art and Design (RMCAD) is located in Lakewood, Colo. and was founded in 1963 by Philip J. Steele, an artist and teacher. RMCAD is a four-year, fully accredited college, with majors in game art, graphic design and digital media, animation, interior design, illustration, art education, and fine arts, with concentrations in photography and video, sculpture, ceramics, and painting.

RMCAD's campus contains eighteen historical buildings built in a variety of 20th-century architectural styles. Special learning facilities include a woodshop, ceramics studio, photography lab, professional sound studio, 283-seat auditorium, 35-seat audiovisual theater, large meeting rooms, and a Library/Resource Center.
