

MOST POWERFUL
WOMEN IN BUSINESS

COLORADO WOMEN'S
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce's 14th Annual Top 25 Most Powerful Women in Business Gala seeks to recognize influential women who have made significant accomplishments in business and throughout the community. Top 25 Women lift other women up, empower, and inspire other women in business and future women leaders.

*The Gala will take place on Friday, October 2, 2026 4:00pm – 8:00pm.
Attendance is required for winners.*

THE CRITERIA

Top 25 Most Powerful Women in Business nominees must meet the following criteria and be available to attend the Gala:

Passionate about the success of women in business

Top 25 Women have inspired other women in the community, who may even attribute their success to this individual. Nominees ensure that women have equitable access to tools they need to impact their business or area of expertise, advance in their career, and have the confidence to take on career challenges.

Civic engagement in the community

Top 25 women have a track record of serving and advancing women in business. Their work is focused on helping disadvantaged women become self-sufficient and/or successful in the workforce.

Track record of success

Top 25 Women are always focused on the next step. Research shows that women don't often reach for top roles or promotions. Top 25 Women have a track record of taking on difficult projects, innovating change, or pioneering new opportunities.

Exhibit perseverance

Change doesn't come easily, and this is especially true with the success of women in business. Some of our best leaders did not take "no" for an answer and did whatever it took to be a changemaker in their company, their business, or in the community.

A business visionary

Top 25 Women have broad vision and a strategic mind.
